

PERSONAL AND PERTINENT.

MONDAY.

The Fair premium lists have been received and the Secretary is distributing them.

Mr. Wagoner, the toll gate keeper, on the Rock Levee, tells us that there are very few wheat wagons passing through the toll gate now.

There are two hundred able-bodied men in this city who live year in and year out and never do a day's work. They wear good clothes and always look cheerful.

The owner of horses that were in the stock pound came in from Brownwood last Friday and took his horses home with him Saturday.

I. Ben Miller surely has a cool resort. In his drug store you can sit down under the revolving fan and drink a drink that will make you forget the hot weather.

Will Warren has lost his bird dog. He will pay a liberal reward to the party who will return the animal to him.

The corn crop in this section of country is a world beater this year. If it is as good all over the country corn will be down to the old regulation price—twenty-five cents per bushel.

Dick Berry has rented John St. Avit's property up on Jefferson Avenue.

Rev. Douglass made some money out of his Puzio excursion.

Prof. Lusk, of Jackson, will teach school this year at Van Buren, Carter County.

The City of New Orleans lay here two hours last night taking floor for New Orleans and other southern cities.

Phil. A. Hafner, of the Scott County Newsboy, says the reasons the merchants of this city are not receiving the trade from that county they used to receive is because they are not advertising in the Newsboy. They are not getting the home trade that they used to get, but that is their own fault. They are not advertising in the DEMOCRAT, the only newspaper they have to advertise in to reach the people.

The City of Cairo and City of New Orleans met here at nine o'clock last night. The Cairo was going north and carried 150 Memphis people who were taking advantage of the low rate offered by the Anchor Line—$8 for round trip, St. Louis to Memphis—meals included.

TUESDAY.

Our millers say the wheat that is coming to market is all in bad condition. It is too damp to grind.

Mr. H. Burr, of the Murphysboro Daily News Era, called on us to-day. Mr. Burr came over to see his friend R. E. Gannon and to take a look at the big city of Southeast Missouri.

Theo. Bessel returned home to-day from Kennett. He says the crops in Dunklin county are as fine as can be. The melon growers are shipping some fine melons to the St. Louis market.

See the clearing sale advertisement of the Bee store elsewhere in this paper. There are some big bargains there for everybody.

Two of the largest brick buildings in Southeast Missouri are being erected in Bloomfield, one by Buck & Boyd and one by Major H. H. Bedford—both for stores, but the upper stories of the Buck & Boyd building will be used for a hotel.

The Christian church proposes erecting a $80,000 college in Southeast Missouri, in some city that will donate fifteen thousand dollars. The citizens of Bloomfield have already subscribed nearly the sum required.

WEDNESDAY.

The steamer Mary Morton will go on the docks this week for repairs. Another steamer will be chartered to take her place while she is undergoing repairs.

Trade seems to be picking up some, but it is not what it should be at this season of the year.

A canvassing party could have made a pile of money in this section of country this year. There is an abundance of fruit and no market for it.

Dr. Dittlinger, of St. Louis, is visiting his father, Michael Dittlinger, in this city.

A. J. D. Burford, agent for the Town Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Rockport, Missouri, is in the city calling on our people. This is one of the best, safest and cheapest plans of insurance in the country and our people should take time to investigate its plans.

There are a number of good, substantial buildings being erected in this city this year and a number of contracts for buildings to be built this year will yet be let.

The corn on the low lands is being crowded by the weeds. The ground has been too wet to plow in for two weeks or more, but the weeds have been growing all the time.

Dr. P. F. Vasterling was elected Vice-President of the National Association of Railway Surgeons at New York last week. Dr. Vasterling is another Cape boy who is working his way up. His many friends here will be pleased to learn of his elevation.

Tinware almost given away at the York Racket Store.

The Board of Regents of the Southeast Normal School will spend about three thousand dollars this year on improvements on the Normal building and grounds. An addition to the building 24x40 feet will be one of the improvements.

The old blind man and his wife who were here three or four days raising thunder on the streets were shipped on the steamer Idlewild yesterday to Commerce. We are sorry for the people of Commerce.

The tearing down of the old St. Charles Hotel building will result some rats that have nested in that old house for the last forty years.

For Hats, Caps, Shirts, Trunks and Valises, be sure to go to the New York Racket Store.

The New St. Charles Hotel building on one corner and the Sturdivant Bank building on the other corner of Main and Themis streets will add much to the beauty of that part of the city as well as to increase the value of the property in the blocks adjoining.

Has our Board of Trade closed its doors and quit business on account of the money question?

The Frank Newson murder case will come up for trial again at the August term of the circuit court at Jackson.

THURSDAY.

The property belonging to the Painter estate will be sold at the August term of the Circuit Court. There is some valuable property in the list that will be advertised and it ought to bring fairly good prices.

A. J. D. Burford tells us that he is doing a good business in this city for the Missouri Town Mutual Insurance Company. Twenty thousand dollars in two days is what he has done.

Ben, Will Hunter, of Benton, is in the city. Mr. Hunter says he is the only sound money Democrat in Benton.

Clem Lindemann and son were awarded the contract to-day for the addition to the Normal School building. Their bid was one thousand nine hundred and fifteen dollars. The contract for plumbing and heating was awarded to Gannon Brothers.

If you want to please the old man with a good cup of coffee buy your coffee at the New York Racket Store, 23 cents a pound.

Miss Josie Catern gave a very pleasant party Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Anna Fletcher, of Iron-ton. Those present were Misses Clara Albert, Iona Adams, Katie Dennis, Mattie Hawkins, Ollie Burgess, Pollie Burgess, Florence O'Donohue and Daisy Campbell. Miss Fletcher left Thursday for Fredericktown, where she will visit a week before returning home.

The melon crop of Scott county this season is not what it usually is. The wet weather cut the crop short and kept the melons from ripening in time for the early market and good prices.

The clearing sale at the Bee Store is drawing the people and the people are carrying off lots of goods.

Be sure and go to the New York Racket Store for good honest goods and good treatment.

Prof. Vandiver went to St. Louis this morning on the steamer City of St. Louis.

J. M. Morrison went to Bollinger county this week and sold two Bird-sell clover hullers, and when he returned home he found two customers waiting for him both of whom to purchase clover hullers.

Misses Ollie and Pollie Burgess, Clara Albert and Daisy Campbell went out to Jackson this morning to visit friends.

The best shoes for the money you ever bought in the world at the New York Racket Store.

FRIDAY.

READ! READ! READ! Arbuckle's coffee 20 cents per pound. Spot Cash Baking Powders 5 cents per pound. Columbia River Salmon 10 cents per can. Sardines 5 cents per can. Other groceries in proportion at Graessle's.

The Methodist and Baptist Sunday Schools are making arrangements for a joint picnic some time next week. Farmers brought a good deal of wheat to market to-day and sold it to our millers at sixty-two cents per bushel.

Hall's Hair Renewer renders the hair lustrous and silken, gives it an even color, and enables women to put it up in a great variety of styles.

Henry Henze has placed the water troughs on the street corners as directed by the City Council. The troughs will be a great convenience to farmers. They can water their horses without having to hunt all over the city for a watering place.

Adolph Ruediger, who has been under the treatment of a physician for a few days is able to attend to business now.

The Mary Morton is temporarily laid up for repairs. The Bachelor is expected to be down in her place tomorrow.

Spot Cash Baking Powders 5 cents for one pound can at Graessle's.

"Have tried others, but like Ayer's best" is the statement made over and over again by those who testify to the benefit derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Disease never had a greater enemy than this powerful blood-purifier. It makes the weak strong.

The McKenzie pea-nut stand was moved this morning from the lot adjoining the St. Charles Hotel building to the vacant lot north of Doyle's hat store.

Arbuckle's roasted coffee in one pound packages 20 cents at Graessle's.

The old blind man and his wife who made so much noise on the streets here a few days ago repeated their performance at Commerce to the great amusement of the boys. The couple were both drunk and were given a bed in jail.

BIG BARGAIN! Arbuckle's coffee 20 cents per pound. Spot Cash Baking Powders 5 cents per pound at Graessle's.

The Poplar Bluff Citizen says that all the small pox patients at Poplin have been dismissed, and that all danger from the disease is now passed.

The property belonging to the Painter estate is advertised for sale elsewhere in this paper.

Cape Girardeau millers are paying more for wheat now than is paid anywhere else in the State south of St. Louis.

LOOK HERE! Arbuckle's Coffee 20 cents per pound. Spot Cash Baking Powders 5 cents per pound at Graessle's.

FOUND DEAD.

Buck Brown Was Found Dead on the Roadside Three Miles North of Jackson.

Wednesday morning the body of Buck Brown was found on the roadside about three miles north of Jackson. The deceased was about fifty-five years old. He had started to Jackson and it is supposed he stopped on the roadside to rest and fell over dead.

Justice Grant with a jury held an inquest and the verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death from heart failure.

Royal Tribe of Joseph.

Deputy Organizer, A. E. Douglass, organized a lodge of the above order in this city yesterday with the following officers:

Past Patriarch, J. H. Rider; Patriarch, Leon J. Albert; Vice-Patriarch, J. S. McGhee; Priest, H. M. Ivy; Scribe, Geo. E. Chappell; Treasurer, Rudolph Bahr; Exalted, Will Warren; Inner Guard, E. A. Johnston; Outer Guard, W. T. Taylor.

The lodge will meet at 7 o'clock at the Lodge No. 1, Royal Tribe of Joseph.

This is a new order, recently organized in the city for social intercourse, and in addition provides for the payment of death sums to its members in the case of total disability or death. It is regarded as the cheapest fraternal insurance society in existence. The society starts out with good prospects, and has not had a death since the organization. It has the endorsement of some of the most prominent men in the state.

Bandmen, Attention.

Harmony is the name of a monthly magazine devoted to bands and orchestras published at the Dalles, Oregon. It is the universal verdict of all who have examined it, that it is the nearest and spiciest journal of the kind published, and at the low subscription price it has been placed, should be in the hands of every musician in the United States. Your name with those of your local musicians will bring you a sample copy. Address, J. G. Miller, Editor and Publisher, The Dalles, Oregon.
